As a bonafide transit passenger you will be issued a visa for a maximum period of 15 days with single or double entry permit.

ADDED INFORMATION

The validity of visa may be for more than 6 months, but the duration of stay in India for each visit on a tourist visa or business visa will not exceed 6 months. Visa is given for a period for which passport is valid. For example, if a passport is valid up to 31st March 2018 and the applicant is applying for a 5 year visa on the 31st of December 2017 then the applicant will not get 5 year visa as the passport expires before that.

TOURIST VISA

It is given for 6 months normally, rest specifically depends on the country of residence. The applicant is required to produce/submit documents in proof of his financial standings. If you are a group of tourist (traveling in-groups of not less than four members) under the auspices of a recognized travel agency, you may be considered for grant of collective tourist visa.

BUSINESS VISAS

If you are on a business visit, you can avail a visa that is valid for one or more years with multiple entries.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

A letter from your sponsoring organization mentioning the nature of Business, probable duration of stay with itinerary. A guarantee to meet all expenses incurred during your stay itinerary.

STUDENT VISA

This visa is issued for the duration of the academic course of study or for a period of five years whichever is less, on the basis of letters of admission issued from the recognized Universities / colleges or educational institutions in India. While applying for this visa also, the applicant is required to produce/submit documents in proof of his financial standing.

NOTE:

You must obtain a MULTIPLE-ENTRY visa for India if you are entering the country more than once the your itinerary.
